Customer Reviews

Excellent collection of sheet music by the extraordinary John Williams. Some are made easier for those like myself who struggle with piano (such as 'Yoda's Theme') to unbelievably complex numbers like the music from 'The Accidental Tourist', a less familiar yet beautiful composition.) My copy is a little dated and there isn't anything from Jurassic Park or Harry Potter, but the collection is still good just the same.

This book includes the usual JW pieces (Star Wars, E.T., etc.), but what sparked my interest is the more rare pieces that he's done (America and the Dream Goes On, NBC Nightly News Theme, The Cowboys, Accidental Tourist, Olympic Spirit). Most of the pieces translated well into piano solos (some are difficult or awkward when transcribing to solo piano). There is quite a variety of styles (Film, Olympic themes, concert works, etc.) This is by far the best JW piano solo book published to date.

I purchased this for my son who is 10 years old. His piano teacher recommended it. He loves it and enjoys choosing and playing pieces even if not given as HW.

Just what I was looking for. In very good shape and the shipment was very quick and the price was very good.

A great collection if a true musical genius
