Customer Reviews

This is a complete rip-off - as far as I can tell, it's no more than a collection of Joan River's jokes copied off the Internet (and not always accurately) and then thrown haphazardly together to get to the $10 in your hip pocket. And I bet JR or her estate don't get a penny in royalties. Disgraceful.

I expected too much. When I heard it was a paperback book, I expected a large, thick book filled with jokes. I expected at least 100 or so pages. What I got was a 26 page book that is very thin and hardly even worth printing. Granted, the content, the actual jokes are all hilarious, timeless and funny. It does a good job of showing the depth and breadth of Joan's work. It however is not enough to satisfy this Joan fan. What we really need is a book that publishes all of Joan's joke catalog, which as any Joan fan knows is very large and expansive. She basically kept an archive of every joke she ever wrote.

I wasn't expecting much of this book considering the author 's name is "Anonymous", and every time I hear that name I think of that online terrorist group that hacks into everything and messes with I believe the government everything else, you know the ones that wear the V for vendetta masks. However like I was saying I checked this out because I have a Kindle unlimited account, well just prime account and decided to check this out since I am a huge fan of Jones for years since I was probably 14. I've seen multiple specials of hers on TV spending all the way back from Ed Sullivan, Carol Burnett to a very long British special she did back in 1984 you know going on to the late 90s and up until she died along with seeing her in 2012 for my birthday. And this person did a fabulous job at putting this together. There's strong all over her career it's not 100 jokes from the past 20 years it's 100 jokes for the past 15 years so it gives you a wide variety of she really was a comedic icon a trailblazer and a legend that was gone too soon.

You need to read this book at home if you don't want to risk laughing out loud in public.

Bought for my mom, who turned "55" again. She loves Joan, and even though the material is in her other books she said she still enjoyed reading the punch lines.

Too long, too many characters clutter up this who-done-it. Her own personal style, descriptions of places and people are excellent, as always. Nate

A TOTAL waste of 7.99. This would NOT be published if Joan Rivers was still alive. This went into the TRASH! YUCK!!!

Absolutely hilarious. Love her and miss her soooooo much
