Customer Reviews

The selections themselves are fine, but the titles are obviously not in correct order, and this is quite distracting. Since all the information supplied is a title and sometimes a date, one would expect them to be correct.

You can't get much simpler than this. It is a collection of some of the pieces by my favourite artist John Everett Millais. This is a nice representation of his work. I was disappointed that the two pieces I was looking for were not in this collection but it was never pretending to have all of his pieces. It displays oddly on my iPad in that some titles appear on the top of the following page rather than below the one it belongs to but that might be because I am using an iPad and it may display properly on a Kindle. Having said that it doesn't detract from the beauty of the art which is well presented in this ebook.
